(/about-PETA's Miles Animals

As for the old shack, we're planning a very special demolition party (http://i.telegraph.co.uk/telegraph/multimedia/archive/00659/news-graphics-2008-_659690a.jpg) that will take place soon.

Since receiving that initial complaint nearly a decade ago, PETA has become a lifesaving presence in many impoverished areas near our headquarters in Southern Virginia. We have provided hundreds of doghouses (https://secure.peta.org/site/Donation2?df_id=2480&2480.donation=form1&set.custom.Campaign_Code=H09LWABXXXH), free and low-cost spay/neuter services (http://www.helpinganimals.com/about_snip.asp), food, toys, no-spill water receptacles, and more to local citizens and their animal companions, and we regularly work with local law-enforcement officials to prosecute those who harm animals. Every dollar PETA spends helps to ensure that a needy animal receives warmth during winter, shade during summer, fresh food, and clean water. Considering the difficult economic situation and winter's frigid temperatures, we—and animals—need your help now more than ever. Visit (<http://www.helpinganimals.com>) HelpingAnimals.com to learn how you can help neglected and homeless animals (https://secure.peta.org/site/Donation2?df_id=2480&2480.donation=form1&set.custom.Campaign_Code=H09LWABXXXH) in your own neighborhood and beyond.

I like the fact that you guys at Peta took action with this I like what you guys stand for also. No animal deserves to suffer like that so it is cool how you have made a much nicer living condition for homeless animals. I am from Pittsburgh and to help out I have decided to volunteer at Animal Friends which is a nokill shelter although not all animal shelters have humane practices so what you guys did was a step in the right direction. Go PETA!

that facility looks like a great improvement, but it will only help when the animals are out there and fed drink there

I am crying tears of joy. PETA is so great... Thank you my heart is overwhelmed. I just can't imagine how horrible it was for these poor cats and dogs before. My favorite saying is How I love PETA let me count the ways... but I first have to blow my nose and wipe my tears.

God Bless Peta! You have done a truly wonderful thing! I hope the word gets out to detractors and to other proanimal groups alike.

I did not know that PETA did these kinds of things. I had no idea how much they help. This definitely makes me want to donate and support PETA even more!
Thanks

i wish PETA would open a non profit animal shelter where i live. There are no shelters in my town, and more than a hundred dogs and even more cats on the street starving every single day. i try to help out as many as possible but its impossible without help. i live in COAMO Puerto Rico.

Almost all of us grew up eating meat, wearing leather, and going to circuses and zoos. We never considered the impact of these actions on the animals involved. For whatever reason, you are now asking the question: Why should animals have rights? READ MORE.
